Obituary

Ruth Virginia Price was born on December 1, 1927 in Nassawadox, Virginia to the union of Harry and Ruth Wise. She was the eldest of two children, her brother, Harry Wise, Jr. having preceded her in death. After a short battle with cancer, Ruth peacefully passed away on September 6, 2011 at the home of her beloved granddaughter and grandson-in-law, Joharisha and Lamar.

Ruth was married to Walter T. Price and they had six children. She lived most of her life in Newark and for many years she was a faithful and active member of Gospel Deliverance Church. When she retired she moved to Willingboro, NJ and worshipped at the St. James Baptist Church in Beverly, NJ for a number of years. At the time of her demise, she was a member of Alpha Baptist Church of Willingboro, NJ under the pastorate of Rev. Danny E. Scotton, Sr.

Ruth impacted the lives of many of the people she met with her smile, graciousness and generosity. Most will remember her for always being fashionably dressed. Likewise, who can challenge the fact that she was the best cook in the world and that she was the candied sweet potato champ.

She leaves to mourn her passing her beloved husband, Walter; her children, Kearney, Janet (Roy), Walter Lee, Isaac and Anthony, (Jerry preceded her in death); her brothers-in-law, Charles and Andrew; her sister-in-law, Ophelia; her brother-in-heart, Charles; her sister-in-heart, Mary; her grandchildren, Joharisha (Lamar), Jenell and Todd; her great grandson, Jahaan; great great grandsons, Jahaan and Lamar Ashad ("L.A."); great great granddaughter, Tadasia; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, friends and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Yes, our hearts are broken. Nonetheless, today we rejoice in the assurance that Ruth has passed the barrier of time as we know it and eternally is at home with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

*Don't spend too much time in mourning
Tears are for the sad.
I left to be with Jesus,
and this should make you glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving .
No need to feel distress.
I'm tired of life's frustrations,
and had to get some rest.
Don't vex yourself with questions, or try to reason why,
Life here for me was ended;
it came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you;
feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way.
We'll have another meeting,
in God's Eternal Day!*
