Reflections of Life

In essence of a moment created by God for the purpose of his life doing, God created in His wisdom and under the coverage of His blessing the late Willie Mack Mann. Born to the late Jessie Scarbor and Elizabeth (King) Mann in Cochran, Georgia on the 12th day of August in the year 1922.

Mack, as he was affectionately referred by family and friends was raised in Cochran, Georgia along with his four sisters and three brothers. Mack was educated in the Georgia school system, and in the year 1943 became a proud member of the United States Army. Mack served three years in the Korean War and upon the completion of his tour, settled in Paterson, New Jersey. While in Paterson, he worked as a long distance truck driver, married the late Annie Mae (Sumter) Mann, and began a family.

Mack was a faithful and diligent member of Christ Temple Baptist Church in Paterson, New Jersey. He remained active in his faith and continued to show God's work through his generosity.

Mack was preceded in death by his parents, Jessie Scarbor and Elizabeth (King) Mann; his wife, Annie Mae (Sumter) Mann; three brothers Lester Mann, Fletcher Mann and Jessie G. Mann; two sisters, Carrie Guyton and Jewel M. Jones.

Mack leaves to cherish his fondest memories: one son, Andre' E. Mann of Paterson, New Jersey; two sisters, Adleane Burke of Paterson, New Jersey and Thelma Davis of Macon Georgia; two grandchildren Andre' Mann and Andrea Mann; one great grandson, Michael Mann; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
