Reflections of Life

Ruth J. Nunery, born January 17, 1921 in Eatonton, Georgia. She was called to her restful peace on Thursday, September 8, 2011. She was the daughter of the late Simeon B. Jackson and Mary L. Jackson. She attended the public schools in Eatonton, GA and at an early age accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and joined Hunts Chapel A.M.E. Church also in Eatonton, GA.

The family moved to Paterson, NJ seeking a better quality of life. Ruth joined The New Christian Missionary Baptist Church in Paterson. After moving to Hackensack she joined the New Hope Baptist Church in Hackensack, NJ under the pastorate of Rev. Richard H. Puryear and was a member of the Mass Choir. She later joined Trinity Baptist Church in Hackensack, NJ and was a faithful member of the Helping Hand Ministry until illness prevented her from attending.

Ruth was employed by Revlon Cosmetics in Passaic, NJ for twenty-five years until the company relocated too far for her to commute. She then worked for Agfa-Gevaert, in Teterboro, NJ for sixteen years and took an early retirement package because of declining health.

She was predeceased by two sisters, Andrew Mae Smith and Iva G. Jackson, two brothers Edgar B. Jackson and Willie H. Jackson.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: one devoted daughter Frances Reavis-Richardson; one son-in-law, Wilson Richardson; one sister-in-law Rosemary Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.

Don't

*Don't spend too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad;
I left to be with Jesus
And this should make you glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving,
No need to feel distress;
I'm tired of life's frustrations
And had to get some rest.
Don't puzzle yourself with questions
Or try to reason why
Life here for me was ended,
It came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you
Feed it with your care;
Grow it with devotion
And spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving
Came in such a way;
We'll have another meeting
In God's eternal day.*
