Obituary

Cloria Maxine was born October 27, 1955; she was the youngest of eleven children born to Nat and Annie Jefferies of Pattison, Mississippi.

Maxine attended Port Gibson High School, after which she graduated Alcorn A&M College in Lorman, MS. She went on to attend a Business School in Vicksburg, MS. Upon completion of her education, Maxine moved to New York to join her other sisters and brothers. After moving to New York she worked as a 911 Dispatcher, she also worked as an Usher for Long Island Railroad, Long Island, NY.

Maxine met and married Octavious Washington. To this union four children were born Jamel, Shera, Justin and Jarrett (Justin preceded her in death), (she also had a stepson, Octavious Jr. who preceded her in death).

She leaves to mourn her future daughter-in-law, Shada Barcript and a grandson, Jamel Washington II, who she adored, he was the apple of her eye.

Maxine loved reading, writing and poetry, she had a passion for knowledge.

Maxine from this life journey had eleven siblings, three brothers preceded her in death, (Mac Arthur Jefferies, Clarence Jefferies and Albert Jefferies) and also leaves to mourn: Cassie Jenkins of Queens Village, NY, Mazel Jefferies of Queens Village, NY, Ida Jefferies of Brooklyn, NY, Annie Keelings of Queens Village, NY; one brother, Nat Jefferies Jr. of Jamaica, NY, Pearl McCormick of St. Albans, NY; one brother-in-law, Harold McCormick of St. Albans, NY, Audrey Jefferies of Jamaica, NY, Wessie J. Jefferies of Jamaica, NY; two aunts, Ruby Jefferies of Larman, Mississippi and Sara McGrew of Lansing, Michigan; one uncle, Wesley Hughes of Meadville, PA; three dear longtime friends, Ethel Williams of Manhattan, NY, Jannie Wilson of Port Gibson, MS and also Mary J. McKay of Pattison, MS; a special cousin, Ida M. Humphery a.k.a "Sweet" of Amityville, NY. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, friends and other relatives.

"We the family feel you're gone too soon, but we thank God for loaning you to us for a season yet you left us spellbound by your sudden exit.

Rest in Peace our sister, we love you but God loves you best. "His Precious Flower."

Oh Father Jehovah I thank you for your undeserved kindness, I thank you for my health and strength. I thank you for shielding me from unforeseen harm and dangers. I thank you for your son die for our sins. I thank you oh Jehovah for providing shelter and food for my family. Thank you for going deep into the bone marrow and knowing my make-up and forgiving me for my sins. You're the ALMIGHTY God and to you I give the Praise. I ask oh Jehovah that you continue to put a fence around people and protect them and forgive them for sins. I pray Jehovah for patience during this holiday season with everybodys adrenaline is allow me to be the calm in the storm and walk in Peace. I Thank you in your son Jesus name Amen.
