Obituary

Clarence Lloyd McDonnough was born to Wilfred and Doris McDonnough on June 2, 1927 in St. Anns, Jamaica, West Indies. He passed away on September 17, 2011 in North Carolina. He was the older brother to Millicent and Karl.

Clarence attended Kingston College and then joined the Royal Air Force. He had four children with his first wife, Doreen; Vaughn, Richard, Martin Anthony and Margaret.

After migrating to the USA in 1961, he met and married Madeline and he became “Daddy Clarence” to CJ (Madeleine’s son). In 1966, they became parents to Patrick.

Clarence worked at Ebbets Field Dodge and then at Merrick Dodge for several years as their service manager. After retiring, he and his wife moved to Coral Springs, Florida in 1994 where he enjoyed building model airplanes, entertaining friends and family, and growing his ackee and pepper trees. He relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina where he lost his wife to breast cancer in 2006.

Clarence loved jazz, his New York Mets, going out on his boat, wrestling, and watching “All in the Family” and “The Andy Griffith Show” Grandpa, as he was called by many, found great pleasure sitting in his garage tinkering with his many gadgets.

He will be greatly missed by his brother, Karl McDonnough; his children, Martin Anthony, CJ, Margaret, Patrick and Rose; numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and many friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me
and I'm not there to see If the sun should rise
and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me
I wish so much, you wouldn't cry
the way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say
I know how much you love me
as much as I love you
And each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too.*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
