Obituary

~Evane Harris-Blake, daughter of Lewis “Slim” Harris, of Waverly, Alabama and Curlean Rosanna Rolle Harris, of Nassau, Bahamas, was born in Metropolitan Hospital in Harlem, N.Y. on January 24, 1947. She passed into eternal rest at North Shore Long Island Jewish Hospital on September 21, 2011.

~She attended Andrew Jackson High School in Queens, N.Y. After high school, she went to school Upstate, N.Y. for Cosmetology. She enjoyed a long, dedicated career working at Creedmore Hospital in Queens, N.Y., where she retired.

~Her first marriage was to Lorrell Waddell, Jr., who had preceded her in death. She had a second marriage with Richard Patterson. In 1998, she married Everton P. Blake, who survives her in death. She leaves to cherish her memories: her three children, Marcell A. Waddell, Lorrell F. Waddell III, Ebony Hill and a step-son, Orandy Blake; two brothers, Andre Harris and Steven Harris; two daughters-in-law, Phyllis Waddell and Linda Waddell; ten grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a rich abundance of family and friends.

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do*

*You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many beautiful years.*

*I gave you my love.... You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness*

*I thank you for the love you have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone*

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust

*It's only for a time that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call, I will come*

*Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear*

*And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile, and say, "Welcome Home."*

We Love You, But God Loves You Best....
