Obituary

Janet Wroten (a.k.a Mama-Sue), daughter of the late Orsby Wroten, Sr. and Jean Wroten was born November 26, 1956 in New York City at Harlem Hospital.

Janet was educated in the New York City Public School system. She graduated from Seward Park High School in 1974. Janet worked at 3333 Broadway as the manager of security for twenty plus years.

Janet joined the Baptist faith at an early age. She truly loved people, music and had a genuine gift of giving. Janet had a heart of gold that touched many lives.

Janet left to cherish her memory: two brothers, Orsby Wroten, Jr. and Anthony Wroten; two sisters, Barbara Wroten and Linda Kelly-Kelly; one brother-in-law, James Kelly; one godson, James Carter, Jr.; three aunts, Clara Emrick, Lula Wroten and Willabelle Wroten-Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Work

*Lord, when thou seest that my work is done,
Let me not linger on.
Tis hard to part when Family and Friends are dear.
Perhaps 'twill cast a sigh a tear,
With a cherry smile,
and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered
into an unknown land,
Think of him as the same: I say
She is not dead, she is just away.*

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Janet Wroten acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness and sympathy shown during her illness and our bereavement.

May God bless you all, this is our prayer
