Obituary

Charlie James Dixon, respectfully known as “Charlie Chan” was born February 20, 1950. He was the son of Estelle M. Dixon and the late Clifford R. Roulhac. He was the fifth sibling out of nine children.

Charlie was educated in the Newark Public School system.

Charlie loved dancing, swimming, and really enjoyed fishing and the outdoors. Chan was a pro pool player, nine ball was his game, you name it he mastered it. Charlie Chan enjoyed life to the fullest.

He was a devoted father, son, brother, uncle and friend.

Charlie was preceded in death by his beloved mother, Estelle M. Dixon, father, Clifford R. Roulhac and sister, Beverly D. Dixon.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his daughter, Keyana Dixon of Dorchester, Mass.; three sisters, Barbara J. Jones, Irene Robinson and Cora L. Dixon all of New Jersey; four brothers, Grefford Guy Dixon, Mitchell L. Dixon, Andrew B. Dixon and Nathaniel Dixon; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and dear friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
