Obituary

On September 22, 2011, Danny Westbrook was called home to be with the Lord.

Danny was born on October 10, 1946 in New York City to the proud parent Elizabeth Westbrook who preceded him in death.

Danny attended the New York City School district and was a graduate of Dewitt Clinton High School at the age of seventeen.

During his tenure there he matriculated well academically and excelled in basketball where he won medals, and many honors and awards were bestowed upon him.

Throughout his life in the community he was a mentor and Big Brother to the children in the community. He served as a Surrogate Father Figure to his younger family members. Danny was known for his well groomed appearance and his dressing.

Danny will surely be missed by his family, friends and neighbors.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
