Obituary

Jack Middleton, Jr. was born to the late Jack Middleton, Sr. and Alice Middleton, September 18, 1939. He attended Nazareth Baptist Church in New York City where he accepted Jesus Christ as his savior and was baptized at an early age. He was a member of the Senior Choir and Adult Choir. He was educated in the New York City Public School system. He majored in machine and metal. His occupation was Carpentry. He was employed at David Lebensfeld Inc., New York City. He made many Tables, Bar Stools, Cabinets and restaurant equipments, and many other items. He loved photography, playing hand ball, bicycle riding, fishing and sewing. He made many outfits for his mother, wife, children and shopping for his father.

Jack met the love of his life, Hattie Ruth Ray and they were joined in Holy Matrimony, August 12, 1962. From this union, they were blessed with two children, Olivia and Jack III. This past August, Jack and Hattie were married for forty-nine years. To God be the glory.

From May 2011 Jack suffered from a long illness. Tuesday, September 27, 2011 he said to Hattie! I'm tired, Hattie said to him I know you're tired, but you'll be all right. Saturday, October 1, 2011 God called another one of his children home at 7:40 p.m.
