Obituary

Maurice Conrad Webb was the first of two children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Mary and Henry Webb on March 10, 1942 in Harlem, NY. Maurice was preceded in death by his sister, Marilyn Wilson, (2008).

In his early childhood years, he moved to Englewood, NJ where he attended school. Maurice attended Fashion Institution of Technology in Manhattan where he received his Associates Degree. Upon graduation, he enlisted in the army and became a Military Police Officer for two years which he enjoyed immensely. He then worked on Wall Street as a clerk for a number of years. During that time, he attended the New Restaurant School. While in school he chose a different career path which was security.

In 1997 he met Patricia Orr and they united in holy matrimony on November 27, 1998. He was a member of Kelley Temple Baptist Church. Many lives were touched by Maurice through his charismatic charm and caring ways. Maurice loved traveling and exploring historic sites in NYC.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Patricia Webb; his two sons, Maurice, Jr. and Justin Webb; step-daughters, Latisha Ragin, Ishema and Shaniqua Orr; grandchildren, Kendell, Nalijah and Elijah Orr; his aunt, Marlene McCray; his uncle, John; one great grand, Zaire; his nieces and nephew, Kimberly, Tiffany and Terrance Webb; and a host of other relatives and friends. He will truly be missed!

Following the service family and friends are invited for a repast at Londell's Soul Food Restaurant on 2620 Frederick Douglas Blvd.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
