Obituary

On Friday, November 4, 2011 at Franklin Hospice in Long Island, NY, Lloyd George Walcott affectionately known as Mr. Walcott (Wally) was called to rest. Lloyd was born on March 3, 1929 to the late Vennel Blake and James Walcott in Kingston, Jamaica W.I.

Lloyd left Jamaica in the early 1950's and began his travels to various Caribbean Islands before coming to the United States. Lloyd worked in the construction industry on various projects including the New York World's Fair before finding his passion in real estate. He began working as a real estate agent, acquired his brokers license, leading him to entrepreneurship as an independent real estate broker.

Mr. Walcott spent much of his time at his office on Linden Boulevard. Aside from the practical function of his business "The Office" served as THE place to chat with Mr. Walcott, for us all.

He is preceded in death by his brothers, Boysie, Neville and Aston. As Mr. Walcott journeys on, he leaves to mourn: his daughters, Yvonne (Sandy) and Diana; son-in-law, David; his sister, Gloria; brother-in-law, Perth; his brother, Harry; his granddaughters, Saudia, Badia, Afua and Faith-Farrah; great-grandchildren, Aaliyah, Rodger, Nia and Kia; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

May his memories live on and his soul rest in peace.

The Day God Called You Home

God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw that the road was getting rough.
And the hills are hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
That day that God called you home.
