Obituary

Timothy Liggines, affectionately known as “Tinkle” was born on May 26, 1960 in Mansfield, Ohio. He was the youngest of four children born to the union of Jettie Herbert-Leggines and the late Wilbert Liggines. He departed this life on Monday, November 28, 2011, after an extensive illness.

Timothy was educated in the Newark Public Schools and graduated from Newark Tech in 1978. He was reared in the House of God Church, Inc. (Keith Domenion) in Newark, then pastored by the late Elder W.L. Burney.

Timothy relocated to Saratoga, New York in the year 1980. He took a liking to horses and worked as a trainer for many years. Known for his huge sense of humor, he brought joy and laughter to all in his presence.

Timothy was preceded in death by his sister, Dorlene Liggines.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved mother, Jettie Liggines of Union, NJ; a sister, Diane Liggines; a brother, Tommy Liggines; his niece, Danielle Liggines all of Elizabeth, NJ; uncle, Eddie Herbert (Ella) of Detroit, MI; six aunts, Geraldine Johnson of Elizabeth, NJ, Agnes Sears of Analusia, AL, Rev. Minnie Douglas of Union, NJ, Thelma Herbert of Hillside, NJ, Delores Herbert of Irvington, NJ and Priscilla Herbert of Laurel, MD; and a host of cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me,
For now I'm Free,
I have followed the path
God laid for me.
If my parting has left a void,
Fill it up with remembered joys.
Lift up your heart
And share with me
God wanted me now
"HE SET ME FREE"

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
