Obituary

Ann Mitchell was born unto Junious Newby and Annie Young on February 8th 1936, in Newport News, Virginia. Ann Mitchell came to NY, where she later met and married James F. Mitchell on March 18th 1956. From this union there were seven children.

Ann Mitchell received her schooling in New York and received her high school equivalency diploma, where she later went on to continue her education at The College of New Rochelle. Ann Mitchell worked for the Department of Human Resources where she retired from the city in 1997.

Mama had a love for music, (Al Green) bid-whist and good home cooked meals, with mother's love. Mama had a heart of gold, she would give you the shirt off her back, and feed anyone if they said they were hungry. A true mother in every sense of the word.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: six children, Emma Carter, Betty Mitchell, James Mitchell, Frank Mitchell, Elaine Floyd and Michele Mitchell and her grandchildren, Antoine, LeCreshia, Antoinette, James, Michael, Lovell, Nikki and Zenia Ann; two great grandchildren, Semaj and Gavin; her sisters, Cynthia Newby, Sandra Robinson, Katherine Newby, Mildred Newby and one brother, Glenn Newby; her favorite niece, Jeanette Jordan; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. And her son, Lovell Mitchell who preceded her in death along with her sisters, Mattie Newby, Virgie Newby, Minnie Thornton, Lillie Burnette and Alma Bumpers.

A Poet and Didn't Know It

*Zombie figures sitting, some standing tall-all lined up against the filthy wall.
Avid smoke filled the dark, dark room
Leaving a picture of despair and gloom.
Is this a party if so lets dance and shake or have I just invaded a funeral wake.
Look alive don't die now If you can't I'll show you how.*

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Sisterly Love
