Obituary

Born Jennifer Muhammed, on November 4, 1948, to loving parents Leonard and Amy Rafferty in Georgetown, Guyana. She was the third child of that union. Jennifer was educated in the Georgetown public school system and she embraced Christ as her Lord and Savior at a very early age.

In her teens, she met and later married her husband, Fronchot Persaud. Together they migrated to the United States in hopes for a better life for their growing family. From this union eight children were born, Debra, Fronchot, Jr., Wendy, Earl, Franciena, Marlon, Amy and Edwin Persaud.

Jennifer was one of the best cooks her friends and family ever knew. She considered cooking an art and she treated it as such. Jennifer always kept a smile on her face and she would always keep the people around her smiling. Jennifer also had a passion for listening and dancing to reggae music.

Jennifer was a very deep thinker, when her children were young she made sure to instill morals and values in them to insure that they all would grow up to be loving and valuable people. Jennifer always would talk about family unity and she wanted all of her family to live loving with one another. Because of this her message will always live on.

Jennifer was predeceased by one son, Earl Persaud, and two sisters.

She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: her loving husband, Fronchot Persaud; devoted children, Debra, Fronchot, Jr., Wendy, Franciena, Marlon, Amy and Edwin Persaud; dear siblings, Nigel and Ann Rafferty, Cheryl Lall and Lorraine Muhammed; fourteen cherished grandchildren and one great grandchild; she is also survived by a host of other relatives and friends.

She Needed The Quiet

*She needed the quiet so He drew her aside,
Into the shadows where they could confide.
Away from the bustle where all the day long
She hurried and worried when active and strong.
She needed the quiet tho' at first she rebelled
But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld.
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things
Tho' weakened in body, her spirit took wings
To heights never dreamed of when active all day.
He loved her so greatly, He drew her away.
She needed the quiet. No prison, my bed,
But a beautiful valley of blessings instead -
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide.
She needed the quiet, so He drew she aside.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
