Obituary

Inez McKellar departed this life at seventy-four years old on December 25, 2011 at The Forest Hills Healthcare Center in Newark, NJ.

Inez McKellar, the daughter of the late Iona McKellar-Thompson and Maxie McKellar, was born on May 11, 1937 in Lumberton, NC. She was one of fourteen siblings.

Inez McKellar graduated from Hilly Branch Public School of Lumberton, NC and relocated to Newark where she continued her education.

In 1965, she met a young man named Charlie Stanback and from that union a son, Marlon was born. Inez McKellar worked as an Assistant Branch Manager at National Westminster Bank now known as Bank of America. She retired in 1997.

Inez McKellar leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Marlon McKellar; one daughter-in-law, Bernadette McKellar; one granddaughter, Marleena McKellar; two brothers, Edward K. McKellar of Greensboro, NC and David J. McKellar of Alexandria, VA; two sisters, Beulah (Bea) Johnson of West Haven, Conn. and Gloria Jean Smith of Greensboro NC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Psalm 39:12-13

Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

Sometimes the things that seems the worst, turns out to be the best. So we think of this as just a time to get a little rest. And why we cannot understand why things happen as they do. The one who hangs the rainbow out has His own plans for you. And it comforts us to know that we are in His care, and we are all apart of God, and God is everywhere.
