Reflections of Life

Marjorie Cain Jones was born February 20, 1932 in Kingston, Jamaica to the late Patrick Cain and Menna Doig Cain, and relocated to New York many years ago.

She was employed as a Certified Nurses Assistant at DeWitt Nursing Home for many years. Her hobbies included cooking, caring for family and friends and traveling. She was a member of the Ephesus Adventist Church of New York.

She leaves to cherish fond memories: a loving and devoted cousin, Wilda Cain of Totowa, New Jersey; a brother, Hurdley Cain; and a host of other relatives, friends and neighbors.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
