Reflections of Life

Samuel Adkins was born August 1, 1939 in Scotia, South Carolina to the late Samuel Adkins and Maybel (Newton) Adkins, and he received his education in the public school system in that city. Then he moved to Paterson, New Jersey in the late fifty's and was employed by the Kaysam Company all his life and then retired.

He joined the Neighborhood Baptist Church Paterson, New Jersey, at an early age and attended there until he became ill and could no longer attend.

On Christmas morning the death angel visited the Preakness Nursing home in Wayne, NJ and took our beloved brother, father, and grandfather Sam Adkins to his eternal rest.

He was predeceased by one brother, Willie Adkins; three sisters, Mamie Williams, Viola James, and Tillie Morgan.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Sam Jr.; and one daughter, Peggy Anne of New York City; two sisters, Priscilla Kearney (Bill) and Mattie Leach (Willie); one brother, Harry all of Paterson, New Jersey; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
