Obituary

Monty Carroll Alexander was born on December 3, 1959 to Constance Richardson and Earl Carroll Alexander in Manhattan, NY. Monty attended IS 10 in Manhattan, New York and graduated with a high school diploma. He worked Security at Macy's Department Store until he became disabled.

Monty was also known as "Tighten Up" by his friends. He was a very outgoing person, charming, charismatic and full of jokes. Any problems a family member or friend had you can be sure Monty had you back. Monty loved all kinds of music, dogs and his food. He was known for his collard greens and was a great cook. Monty was well versed in politics and social issues. Always ready to give advice and had a heart of gold.

He met and married the love of his life Shawn Willis aka (Taalibat) in December 1999. They married on February 28, 2003. This union brought about a blended family with two children, Taalib and Shariff.

Monty famous quote was "When God calls on the check, you gotta pay up."

Monty's is survived by: his wife, Shawn Willis Alexander; two sons, Taalib and Shariff; one grandson Blake; one daughter-in-law, Belinda; one brother, Earl Alexander; and a host of extended family members, sisters, brothers, cousins, nieces, and nephews and one god sister.

Monty is preceded in death by his parents, Constance and Earl Alexander, one sister, Beverly Clark, grandparents, Joseph and Clara Cooper and one nephew.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;

That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen
