Obituary

Voncile McKinnon Yellock was born February 22, 1933 to the late Joel and Willie B. McKinnon in Troy, Alabama. She attended Rosedale High School in Homewood, Alabama. She completed her education by earning an Associate's Degree from Essex County Community College in Newark, New Jersey. After twenty-eight years of service, she retired from Essex County Welfare Board.

She found God at an early age, was baptized, and attended Macedonia Baptist Church, Overton, AL under the leadership of Reverend T.J. Marigna. She was a faithful member of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Reverend Vann T. Rhoe. After retirement, she returned to Alabama where she was an active member of Hunter Street Baptist Church, Hoover AL, Pastor Buddy Gray. In her later years, she began worshiping with Second Baptist Church, Reverend Dr. James Ealey.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Raymond Lee Yellock, three sisters, Blanche, Cora and Mildred, three brothers, Willie J. Howard and Willie D.; and one granddaughter, LaTonya.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Linda Perry (David), Janice Wormley and JoAnn Peterson; and a son, Brian Keith Wormley; two sisters, Lucille Watkins (Birmingham) and Geraldine McKinnon (Newark, NJ); six grandchildren, Nikita, LaShaundra, Ashton, Brian Jr., Brittany, Brianna N. and Briana; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
