Reflections of Life

Terrance Wells, who was more commonly known as “Ahmed” or “Sha”, was born on September 18, 1969 in Jamaica, Queens to Edward and Judy Wells. “Sha” was called home on January 21, 2012.

“Sha” was raised in Jamaica, Queens where he has left a mark in so many people’s lives. He had a big heart and enough room in it for all. He was strong willed, somewhat stubborn and had no problem sharing what was on his mind. To know him was to love him. Whether he was in your life for the season, there is a reason why he is so unforgettable to those who did know him.

“Sha” leaves to rejoice in his memory: his wife, April and their daughter, Nyesha; his father, Edward; mother, Judy; two brothers, Musa and Ibrahim; two sisters, Imani and Anisa; three nieces, Fatima, Imarri and Kalima; a nephew, Quaron. Terrance also has an enormous amount of family and friends that will truly miss his physical presence.

The Chain Will Link Again

*Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.*

*In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
your love is still our guide.*

*And although we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.*

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.

*But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!

Muslims respect and revere Jesus (peace be upon him), and await his second coming. They consider him one of the greatest of God's messengers to mankind. A Muslim never refers to him simply as "Jesus", but always adds the phrase "peace be upon him". The Qur'aan confirms his virgin birth (a chapter of the Qur'aan describes the creation of Jesus as follows (interpretation of the meaning): Behold! the Angel said, "God has chosen you, and purified you, and chosen you above the women of all nations. O Mary, God gives you glad tidings of a word from Him, whose name shall be the Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, honored in this world and the Hereafter, and one that shall speak to the people from his cradle and in maturity, and shall be of the righteous. She said: O my Lord! How shall I have a son when no man has touched me? Even so; God creates what He wills. When He decrees a thing, he but says to it, "Be! and it is." (Qur'aan, Surat (chapter) Allah's 'Imraan, 3:42-7) Jesus (peace be upon him) was born miraculously through the same power which had brought Adam (peace be upon him) into being without a father: "Truly, the likeness of Jesus unto Allah is as the likeness of Adam. He created him of dust, and then said to him, 'Be! And he was.'" (3:59) During his prophetic mission, Jesus (peace be upon him) was granted and performed many miracles. The Qur'aan tells us that he said (interpretation of meaning): "I have come to you with a sign from your Lord: I make for you out of clay, as it were, the figure of a bird, and breathe into it and it becomes a bird by Allah's leave. And I heal the blind and the lepers, and I raise the dead by Allah's leave." (3:49) Other miracles include speaking soon after birth in defense of his mother's piety. God's other gifts included healing the blind and the sick, reviving the dead, and most importantly, the message he was carrying. These miracles were granted to him by God to establish him as a prophet. According to the Quran, he was not crucified, but only appeared so; instead, Allah raised him unto Heaven. (Quran, Chapter Maryam) Neither Muhammad (peace be upon him), nor Jesus (peace be upon him), came to change the basic doctrine of the belief in one God, brought by earlier prophets, but to confirm and renew it. In the Quran Jesus (peace be upon him), is reported as saying that he came: "To attest the law which was before me. And to make lawful to you part of what was forbidden you; I have come to you with a sign from your Lord, so fear God and obey me." (3:50)

*I remember when you use to hold me in your arms.
I love the way you felt, so strong.
I miss you, I miss you, I miss your smile..
I always shed a tear, once and awhile.
Even though its different now
You are still here with me somehow.
Remember when we use to run and hide?
I really wish you were by my side.
My heart won't let you go, I really thought you should know,*

I Miss You

*Oh how I wish you can see all the things
my mom is doing for me,
Cause I never wanted you to leave.
Its true time flies fast, I know your in a better place, but I wish I could see your face.
Even though its different now, you are still here with us some how.
My heart won't let you go,
I just want you to know,*

I Miss You
