Reflections of Life

Marion Rose Buonaiuto Hunter was born June 10, 1940 in Brooklyn, NY to the late Carmine and Lillian Buonaiuto. She was the eldest of two children.

Marion was a happy and carefree soul who attended our Lady of Guadalupe and also sang in the school glee club. As life would have it, she met and married her husband William T. Hunter. This union was blessed with four children; Michelle, William, Bernice and Timothy.

Marion was the best. One thing she loved most of all was family. A loving, caring and generous lady, a friend indeed, Marion was a people person who cared deeply for those she knew. Marion was also a hard worker. She worked and retired from the Nuclear Cleaners in NY and enjoyed her retirement with travel and retreats.

In October of 1976, Marion joined a fellowship of men and women where she celebrated life one day at a time. In this fellowship, Marion touched many lives as well as she too was touched. She lived a life of spiritual principles where she put God first. Marion was blessed to celebrate THIRTY-FIVE YEARS of sobriety, "ONE DAY AT A TIME". She was also a member of Matt Talbott's Women's Group of Queens, NY.

Marion was predeceased by her son, William and brother-in-law George Hunter.

She leaves to cherish her memories: husband, William T.; her children, Michelle, Bernice, and Timothy; seven grandchildren, Lance, Sharieff, Alniys, Dante, Shanaye, Isaiah and Xavier; great granddaughter, Laylonney; her brother, Carmine Buonaiuto of Indiana; two sisters-in-law, Pearlene Wimes and Mabel Richardson; eight nieces and nephews, Steve Richardson, Larry Edgerton, Jeffrey Hunter, Diane Richardson, Pearl M. Pinkett, Rodney Edgerton, Keisha Chapman and Annette Dunn; and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life.

This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
