Reflections of Life

Kenneth Littlejohn "Kenny" was kind and soft spoken and loved by everyone.

He was raised in and attended the family church; Church of the Living God United Founder by his grandfather Bishop Robert Littlejohn. He had a heart of gold and always willing to keep and serve. Kenny had strong faith and he really loved the Lord. He loved his children and was so proud to talk about them.

He had a deep passion for Artwork and had owned his own Art Gallery displaying Beautiful Black Art. Kenny was creative and talented. He also worked aside his step father doing construction. You should have seen the smile on his face when he received his first tool belt. He then became the master of demolition. Kenny loved to dress and when he dressed, "He dressed to impressed."

Kenny was our soldier who fought a hard battle, always on guard. The Struggle is over now, God called his name and like a true soldier he went without shame. God looked around and found a special place then looked down and saw his face. He put his arms around him and lifted him to rest. We know that God always takes the very best. God knew his suffering and knew his pain, he knew he would never suffer again. It broke our hearts to lose our loved one, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home. So rest our Kenny you served well I know we will see you again as only time will tell.

He leaves to cherish fond memories: his sons, Kenneth Jr., Kenneth Kadeem, Kamal and Michael Littlejohn, Jelani Thomas and Khiry McMillin; daughters, Tatianna and Kaleemah Littlejohn; mother, Yvonne Littlejohn; stepfather, William Liverpool; maternal grandmother, Helen Littlejohn; brothers, Robert and Anthony Littlejohn; sister, Tanesha Littlejohn; devoted friends, Waahidah Rashad, Aiesha Long and Rev. Jerry Mouzone; brother-in-law, Marshall Berry; sisters-in-law, Maria and Tracy Littlejohn; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

He was preceded in death by his great grandparents, Bishop Robert and Annie Littlejohn, grandfather, William Littlejohn, uncle, "Pop" Robert Littlejohn and aunt, Carolyn Littlejohn.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.*

I know that your hearts are heavy

*Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
