Obituary

Danny Hawes passed away on Friday, February 3, 2012 in Dallas, Georgia. Danny, known as “Danny Boy” was born on April 14, 1951 in Newark, New Jersey to Mrs. Mattie Hawes and the late Ozzie Hawes.

Danny was educated in the Newark School system. He went on to further his education at the Clara Maass School of Radiology, where he received his certification and became a licensed X-Ray Technician. Danny loved his work and was very compassionate with his patients.

Danny was an excellent cook, who really knew his way around the kitchen. He was famous for his spaghetti with perfectly round meatballs, among various other mouth watering dishes.

Danny is survived by his mother, Mattie Hawes; daughters, Lanette Mason and Erin Hawes; siblings, Anna Horton, Peggy James, Jerry and Anthony Hawes; grandchildren, Janay Mason, Atanaya Freeman, Tyzion Gayton, Joshua Hawes, Yamir Johnson and one great grandchild, Kiyara Goodson. Danny also leaves cherished memories his devoted companion, Camille Vivyan and Lucy; their dog and special cousin, Sam Huff; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Danny was preceded in death by his father, Ozzie Hawes, brother, Fred and sisters, Ozzie, Mattie and Linda Hawes.

Come To Me

God saw he was getting tired And a cure was not to be So He gently closed those loving eyes And whispered “Come to me” The days of toil and nights of pain The weary hours have passed The patient gentle worn out frame Has found sweet rest at last. Day and night we stood by him and saw him in pain, Anxiously awaiting his cure But our waiting was in vain. God who knoweth all things best Eased his suffering, gave him rest he is gone but not forgotten, Never will our memories fade Sweetest thoughts of him will ever linger Round the place where he rests.
