Reflections of Life

On February 8, 2012, the beloved Kenny Nahar graduated to glory.

He was born in Aruba, WI on June 25, 1947 and was the first born child of Waldemar and Henrieta Nahar. His parents made the USA their home when Kenny was seven years old.

He excelled in the New York City Public Schools system and graduated with honors from Aviation High School in 1965. He was enlisted in the US Army in 1967, where he served in Vietnam. After honorably serving his country, he returned to civilian life in New York City. He immediately began working for American Air Lines for a short time before becoming employed with Verizon (formerly New York Telephone Company) in February 1969 where for thirty-three years he was a dedicated and loyal employee until he retired.

In 1968, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Lorna C. Porter. To this union they were blessed with two children, Kim Marlese and Kenny Jr. He was a hard working devoted husband, a loving father and self sacrificing grandfather.

His generous and benevolent spirit touched the hearts and souls of many. Kenny enjoyed many passions; some of the many were his love for cars, flying, bowling, reading and was an avid sports fan. If you knew Kenny, you know he loved all types of music. He will be missed not only by his family but those who benefited by having known him.

Kenny leaves to mourn: his loving wife, his two children, his mother, his mother-in-law, Thelma Porter; his daughter-in-law, Keira, four grandchildren, Kymani, Kamin, Kayla and Kaleb; his two siblings, Norman and Hera; his cherished goddaughter, Nya; four sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law; and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father and brother, Roy.

"I'm Free"

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement. May God Bless and Keep You!
