Reflections of Life

Wanda G. Miller was born on August 2, 1946 to Elise Gudger and Pete Abbott. She departed this life on February 10, 2012.

There are no words that can express the magnitude of this child “Woman” of God. She was definitely a great woman who was not only dependable, but understanding as well. She was there when needed, day or night. We dare not shed tears of sorrow for her, but tears of joy.

Wanda was educated in the public school system and later employed as a supervisor for the Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS) in Newark, NJ.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her son, Keith A. Miller (Leola) of Albany, NY; her husband, Charlie Miller of Irvington, NJ; her sister, Beverly Boyette; her mother, Elsie Gudger (both of North Carolina); her niece, Dr. Ruenette Boyette (David); and she is also survived by a host of other nieces, nephews, family members and friends.

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
