Reflections of Life

Walter B. Mobley, Sr. was the sixth child born to Daisy Wilcox and Monroe Mobley. He was born on July 18, 1937 in Dooly County, GA. He was fondly called "Coota Sam". At an early age he joined Big Poplar Baptist Church, Hawkinsville, GA, and received his education in Dooly County and Big Poplar Schools.

In August of 1960, he married Evelyn Davis, the daughter of Rosalie and Ulysses Davis. To this union eight children were born. During his stay in Georgia, he utilized his trade in farming and construction. In 1963, Walter moved to Elizabeth, New Jersey, and in 1969 he moved to Paterson, NJ.

He was employed at Haydon Tube Manufacturing for over forty years and retired as a supervisor. He was the operator and owner of Two Brothers Restaurant and The Fish Store. Outside of working, he spent most of his time gardening, motorcycling, cooking barbecuing, winery, repairing vehicles, rebuilding homes, and raising his children. He enjoyed traveling to Georgia to visit his relatives and friends, and was usually found in the company of his children.

Peacefully, Walter departed his earthly life at his home. He was preceded in death by his parents, Daisy Davis and Monroe Mobley; a daughter, Michelle Mobley; one sister, Almeta Davis; two sisters-in-law, Lillie Bell Mobley and Clara Mobley; two brothers-in-law, George Taylor, Sr. and Eddie Johnson.
