Obituary

Amarde (Love) Clermont Mother and Jean Robert Lodvil Father grew up in Haiti and moved to the United States at a young age, to New York City. Both fell in love and got happily married. On that beautiful day May 18th, 1981, in Brooklyn New York, conceived Jerry Robert Lodvil. Jerry was a traveler, he lived in many places - Canada, Haiti and back to the United States. His family is a very church going family. Moved from Brooklyn into Queens where he attended Springfield High School. In his teens, he met a young lady by the name of Shelly and for twelve years they dated. Within those years they conceived a wonderful son, Joezieah. He will greatly be missed by family and friends. May the Lord bless and keep you until we meet again.

Too much to mention, Jerry will be missed by: his Mother, Amarde Clermont; and Father, Jean Robert Lodvil. Who he left behind, living on his father's side, he left behind his grandparents and over 22 cousins, many aunts and uncles and a little brother. On his mother's side, he left behind his grandmother and sister Nataliah, Ashley and Johanna. Also he left behind many aunts, uncles and cousins. It's a large family too many names to mention.

May the LORD bless and keep the family of Jerry Robert Lodvil.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
