Obituary

Cecil Lloyd Luton A.K.A. “Doggie” was born on May 10, 1963 in West Indies, Jamaica. He was the first child for his father, Renford Luton and only child for his mother, Deloris Harris.

He attended The Mt. Horeb Seventh Day Adventist Basic School and then The Mt. Horeb All Age School. He went to live with his grandmother in Kingston after leaving school. During this period he worked at Atlantic Security Company and a Store before he migrated to the U.S.A in 1988.

In the U.S.A. he worked at New Jersey Transit in Paterson, NJ, Bergen Pines Hospital in Paramus, NJ and at Veterans Home in Paramus, NJ for twelve years where he got sick in the year of 2000.

Cecil leaves to mourn: his wife, Kathie (Armstrong) Luton of Passaic, NJ; his mother, Deloris Harris of Paterson, NJ; his foster mother, Florence Ferguson “Miss Min” of Jamaica who took care of him in his early years; his son, Nicholas Luton and his daughter, Petagaye Luton both of New York, NY; his step-daughter, Tahiyah Green of Passaic, NJ; his three step-sons, Gregory Frederick of Duluth, GA, Douglas Frederick of Garfield, NJ and Rob Pooler of Raleigh, NC; two grandchildren; two brothers; one sister; his brother-in-law, John Leach and sister-in-law, Annie Herring both of Raleigh, NC; his uncle, Leroy; aunts; and other relatives and friends.

Interment

East Ridgelawn Cemetery

Clifton, New Jersey

Farewell O weary broken body
No longer needest thou our weeping,
Farewell and go to take your rest.
The grave that waist to fold you in,
From every grief and pain released.
Flings wide the gates of Heaven,
And locks all paths to hell.
