Obituary

Anthony Jamel Henry was born on January 2, 1973 in the Bronx, New York to Anthony Henry and Jo-Anne Harris.

Anthony attended Yonkers public schools. He graduated from Bayside High School in Queens, New York. Anthony excelled with an amazing artistic ability. His desire was to be a commercial artist. In his free time, you could find him airbrushing T-shirts, tailoring jackets and creating his own designs. He went on to start his own business, 721 Designs. He was sought out by many to create unique designs. Anthony had a fondness for the Washington D.C. / Virginia area, so much so, that a great deal of his works of art were on display there.

Anthony loved and was passionate about his family. Anthony enjoyed all family events. He enjoyed life and will always be remembered as the life of the party: telling jokes, singing and dancing. Anthony had a special bond with all of his male cousins; especially Ed. Ed was like his little brother.

Anthony had an adventurous spirit; he loved to travel, particularly in the south.

Anthony formed a bond with Shenicia Costa and they were married in Yonkers, New York. This union produced two lovely sons, Anthony and Jessiah. Anthony is artistic like his dad. Anthony loved having his father give him haircuts. Jessiah and his dad both had a fondness for sports, particularly football. Jessiah is a NY Giants fan and his dad liked the Dallas Cowboys. Anthony was the step-father to Elijah & Brea Adams.

He leaves to cherish his memories: mother, Jo-Anne Carey and William Carey, stepfather; four children, Anthony & Jessiah, Elijah & Brea; five sisters, Keyla Williams of Middle Town; Ebony Henry, Inisha Myers-Moore, Sharisse Harris of Yonkers, NY and Breann Henry of Rochester, NY; two brothers, Saquan Henry of South Carolina and William Carey of Lacey, Washington State; Aunt Sandra of Georgia, his favorite Aunt Jean, Kenya, Yvonne, Ella and Carolyn of Virginia, Carolyn of Georgia; Uncles Andre' and Maurice; Judy O'Neal of Maryland; a host of nieces, nephews cousins and friends.

On Tuesday, March 6, 2012 at 7:10 a.m., Anthony heard a sound that no one else could hear and slipped away from us into eternity at St. Joseph's Medical Center, Yonkers, New York.

Anthony was predeceased by his father Anthony Henry; grandparents, Andrew G. Henry and Markelle Henry, Tom Harris, Ella and George Joynes.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
