Obituary

Lynda Marie Jane (Dickerson) Williams departed this earthly life on March 8, 2012 and journeyed home to be with her heavenly father.

On July 17, 1964, God sent one of his angels named Lynda Marie Jane to be born of Troy and Mollie Dickerson in Hackensack, NJ. She grew up along with her four siblings in Englewood, NJ. She was educated through the Englewood Public School System. She graduated from Dwight Morrow High School in 1982. Lynda was a very loving, caring and passionate child. She put her whole heart into whatever she endeavored.

Lynda was joined in marriage to James T. Williams II, of Englewood, NJ in 1987. They raised three beautiful children; Travis, Jasmine and James III. Sadly, she was predeceased by James in 1996.

Lynda was a devoted wife and mother. She was a very responsible, diligent and hardworking lady. She worked her first job at the age of sixteen in 1980. Lynda started working at Master Bond, Inc. in Englewood, NJ. She worked there for several years. In 1987 she was employed with the US Postal Service for the next twenty years. In 2000 Lynda joined the Security Team in the Englewood Public School District. "Ms. Williams" as she was respectfully called by staff, faculty and students had a beautiful, kind and compassionate spirit. She always offered a smile and a welcoming greeting to everyone who entered the doors at Dwight Morrow High School. She adored working with the students and the students loved her. She touched the lives of each one in a special way. Ms. Williams was always willing to listen to them, help them and offer a word of encouragement. She had an indelible constructive impact on their lives.

Lynda left a legacy of love. She loved the Lord. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and enjoyed worshipping at The Overcomers House of Worship, where she recently became a member. She was very creative. She loved to decorate and had a knack for interior design. She had a talent for making beautifully unique centerpieces as a hobby. She was a proud grandmother who loved to spend time with her grandchildren. A devoted daughter, she would not miss a day having early morning coffee with her mother. A special sister, she shared a special bond with each of her sisters and brothers. A faithful friend, she especially enjoyed spending time with her lifelong friends.

Lynda leaves to cherish her memory: her parents, Mollie Gould of Englewood and Troy Dickerson of Englewood; two sisters, Delilah Dickerson of Cliffside Park and Lenora Dickerson of Englewood, NJ; two brothers, Troy Dickerson Jr. of Fredrick, MD and Jamaal Dickerson of Union, NJ; her 3 children, Travis Goins of Teaneck, (daughter in law Shazia), Jasmine Williams of Cliffside Park and James Williams, III of Englewood, NJ; granddaughter, Mikayla of Cliffside Park; granddaughter, Sariahya of Teaneck, NJ; and a newborn grandson, Naseem of Teaneck; and a host of neices, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
