Life Reflections

Linda Fay Williams was born on August 29, 1942 in Chapin, South Carolina the daughter of the Late Zan Bowers and Margie Patterson Williams and reared by her stepfather, Gussie Williams. She attended Richlex Public School in Irmo, South Carolina and began her early Christian education at Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Chapin.

Linda moved to New Jersey over fifty years ago and resided in Elizabeth, New Jersey. Mother Williams joined Bibleway Deliverance Center in 1999 under Bishop Wayne L. Johnson and served faithfully as a licensed evangelist on the Ministers Board, Mothers Board, Missionary Board, Pastor's Aide and Radio Guild. Formerly she was a member, evangelist, and pastor aide leader at Greater Faith Temple COGIC in Elizabeth, New Jersey under Superintendent Wallace K. Thomas.

Linda Fay Williams was also employed by the Elizabethport Presbyterian Center for fifteen years before retiring.

Mother Williams was a virtuous lady of the Lord who loved people and was loved by all who knew her. Her beautiful hats and fashionable style of dress could not go on unnoticed. She was a kind, loving, and generous woman of God who supported the church and gave liberally of her substance. She was a great evangelist, prayer warrior, and a true mother on Zion. Many souls have been saved, healed, and delivered through her ministry.

Mother Williams departed this life on Tuesday, March 7, 2012 after a long illness. She was predeceased by one sister and two brothers.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving son, John Williams of Elizabeth, New Jersey; two sisters, Carrie Lormeus and Ora Mae Cannon both of Chapin, South Carolina; two brothers, Andy Williams and Walter Williams both of Chapin, South Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

“Farewell”

I used to sing, I used to shout
‘Cause praising the Lord is what it’s all about.
I used to laugh, I used to cry,
But now it’s time to say goodbye.

No more doctors, hospitals, or medicine to take,
No more pain, sorrow, or decisions to make.
For now I’m in that holy place
Where I can behold Him face to face.

For the battle is over and the victory’s won,
Come home my child – Thou good and faithful child,
Well done.

Your tasks down here are finished at last,
Where we can only share memories of the past.

The Lord has called and I must go,
For we’ll meet again one day I know.
He’s coming back again real soon,
Just get ready, for it may be morning, night or noon.

Acknowledgement

We, the family, extend our deepest gratitude for all of the comforting gestures of love and sympathy rendered during this sorrowful hour. We sincerely thank you all.
May God continue to shower you with His blessings and love.
