Obituary

Ebony S. Conway was given her angel wings on Sunday, March 11, 2012 at Beth Israel Medical Center after a long battle with kidney disease. Although many would feel her life was too short she still managed to leave and impact on everyone she met and was a ray of sunlight for those who knew her.

Ebony was born in New York on June 18, 1987 to Sherri Conway and Quaison Julian. Even at a young age she showed the world how strong her will to live was by overcoming a premature birth. Ebony went on to excel in her academics while attending Saint Clare's Catholic School. Ebony was also an avid lover of music describing it as a way to gain insight into the soul. Ebony's love of music led her to join her parish, Christ the King's, choir where her strong voice added harmony and power. Even after Ebony moved to Atlanta, GA she remained focused on achieving her dream to someday become a social worker. She finished high school at the top of her class and was to soon start college. Ebony never let being on dialysis hold her back from reaching the goals she set her sights on and even though it was a struggle she always remained hopeful that she would receive a kidney transplant and make all her dreams a reality.

Ebony is survived by her grandmothers Gertrude Conway and Joyce Julian, her sisters Yvonne , Sherrel, Tianna and Tyneisha, her nephews Leviticus and Zion, her nieces Sherrianna and Artemis, her Uncle Kenny and Aunt Tina and her cousins Cynthia, Dorine, Donna, Corine, Sandra, Gary, Darcel, and Evette. Ebony also leaves behind many others whose lives she touched with her resilient strength and never ending faith.

Ebony's memory will always remain with us and even though it seems impossible to have to say goodbye she would never want us to grieve. Instead let us remember her bright smile and amazing personality. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to New York Presbyterian Hospital.

Sister I Love You

Sister I love you, even though I may not show it.

We've been through so much, yes I know it.

Sister I love you, you're all I've got and now things are starting to get steaming and hot.

Sister I love you, through sickness and health one day you will soon live in wealth. There's nothing in this world that can change my mind until the day comes when we will just be fine. Sister I love you, because when I thought no one was there, you came and showed me that no matter what you'll always care. Even when I let you down, you always seem to come around. I know sometimes you feel like you're all alone
but I need to take care of some things of my own.

All I ask of you is to give me a chance because seeing how determined you are it has given me guidance. I know time doesn't wait for no one but if I keep trying our blessings will surely come. You're my best friend that's why I learned to love again. Yes, what I'm saying is true sister, I love you sister.
