

In Loving Memory of

Obituary

Beloved mother, wife and friend to many, Elizabeth was born to Bessie and Ester Robinson in Newark, New Jersey in the middle of what was simultaneously the roaring '20's.

Elizabeth maintained a close relationship with her siblings (Ralph, Arthur, Dorothy and Alfred) regardless where any of them were. This was because; family always remained Elizabeth's highest priority. In an ever changing, consistently harsh and trying world family was the only true constant.

Elizabeth was called Betty or Liz by her peers but mostly she was referred to simply as "Gramma", Elizabeth also took a very active role in the lives of her many Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren in some cases children she didn't even know.

Elizabeth lived life to the fullest. Not to be out done by her mother who decided to put on roller skates at sixty-five years old skate in the house and got stuck in the doorway. Elizabeth would try just about anything from eating Hot Wings to dancing to the latest videos on BET or insisting on helping her son wash his truck for his birthday to Sneaking a piece of cake, pie, a cookie or anything else she could get away with.

Elizabeth loved being outdoors from sitting in front of the house watching the children play to her annual birthday road trip to Baltimore, Maryland to visit her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Elizabeth is survived by: daughter, Natalie Holman; son, Nathaniel Holman; daughter, Geraldine Robinson and the late daughter, Marlene Holman. She also leaves to cherish eighteen grandchildren and twenty-five plus great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Elizabeth you will be missed but never forgotten.

I Am Resting

*I've parted this life my loved one,
But worry not for I am not gone,
I am merely resting.
Don't cry or mourn
For God is with you and in your hearts.
Carry on.*

*We will miss each other,
But remember God is with us all.
Be strong my loved one,
For I am not gone,
but merely resting.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
