Obituary

Anita A. Williams - Diene was born in Manhattan, New York to loving parents Eric and Patricia Williams on July 20, 1984. Anita graduated from Richard R. Green High School in New York, New York. After graduation Anita went back to school and received a certificate in developmental psychology. She worked with individuals with developmental disabilities and continued this field of work until God called his Angel home. She was employed at Community Resource Center for Developmental Disabled Incorporated in Yonkers, New York before her untimely departure.

Anita was a beautiful young woman who possessed strength, courage and had a heart filled with love. She shared that love with anyone that she came into contact with, she made each person feel special. So full of laughter, hugs, kisses and always smiling. She enjoyed writing poems, dancing, shopping, singing and most of all, the time she spent with family and friends.

Anita was extremely helpful, caring, thoughtful and supportive of everyone in their time of need. She would put her own personal life aside to assist you with your personal problems. Anita was God sent, so let us remember the blissful and fruitful moments we all shared with our sweet Anita. Today, we honor her in celebrating her life. Gone but she will never be forgotten.

Anita touched many lives and will surely be missed.

She is survived by: her parents, Eric and Patricia Williams; her husband, Alioune Diene; her daughter, Katrina Streety; her brother, Benjamin Kingston; her sisters, Denise Williams, Erica and Benita Kingston; and a whole host of aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and her best friend, Melvalyn Quinones.
