Reflections of Life

Samuel Prescott, Jr. "Sam, Junior" age 68 as son, brother, husband, father and friend but, most of all a child of God.

God in his infinite wisdom came into our midst early Tuesday morning April 10, 2012, at The Saint Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center and saw fit to call our beloved Samuel home to rest, following a courageous battle with sickness.

Samuel entered into this world on October 19, 1943 in Lee County, South Carolina, to the late Samuel Prescott, Sr. and surviving, Mary Louise (Forman) Prescott. He was educated in the Lee County Public Schools.

In 1964, Samuel moved to Paterson and began working at various jobs. He found employment with Washington Equipment Company that lasted more than twenty years. He also learned skills in air conditioning and refrigeration.

He grew up in a Christian home and at an early age, Sam along with the family attended Gum Spring Baptist Church in Bishopville and on many occasions made visits.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Delzora Taylor Prescott and father, Samuel Prescott, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: a son, Odell Prescott of Paterson, NJ; mother, Mary Louise (Forman) Prescott of Bishopville, SC; sisters, Maggie (Milton) Mahan, Mabscott of West Virginia and Rozenia (Clinton) Canty of Anderson, SC; brothers, Leroy (Janie) Prescott of Hainesport, NJ and Richard (Helen) Prescott of Paterson, NJ; stepson, Eric Taylor; granddaughter, Little Dell and step grandson, Eric Taylor; sister-in-law, Barbara Taylor, New York, NY; three uncles; five aunts; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me...I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try and understand that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand and said, my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you today for life on earth is past, but tomorrow starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past." So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
