Obituary

James Jasper Palmer was born at General North Carolina Hospital, on November 3, 1953 to Mr. Floyd and Miss Bernice Palmer, in Aulander, North Carolina. His parents were elated with joy of his birth, as he was the fourth child to be born.

Later he moved to Manhattan, NY where he met and married Annie. They were together for thirty-five years. He was blessed with five children.

James received his education at Pace University and The City University of New York, he was very smart. He received certifications and licenses for the New York City Fire Department for Sprinkler and Standpipe Maintenance, and Boiler Operator #6.

He leaves to forever love and cherish his fondest memories: his loving wife, Annie; four sons, James, Phillip, Jason and Anthony; a daughter, Tahisha and two step-daughters, Charlotte and Denetra; eight grandchildren, Lauren, James, Jason, Nacir, Jaquan, Amaree, Phillip and Marques; and a host of loving cousins, other family members, friends and loved ones. He will truly be missed.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
