Obituary

Malcolm Nashadeen Bagley the son of Sharon Y. Bagley and Alfonso Williams was born on May 15, 1993. He lived in Orange, New Jersey all his life. Malcolm was known as “Ambitious” on and off the field. He was very ambitious and passionate about Football, having played as a wide receiver for the City of Orange Pop Warner league and Orange High School Tornados. While at Orange High he became captain of the team and later crowned Homecoming King. Malcolm Bagley proved he was one of the best senior football players in the state with his performance on June 27, 2011 he caught five passes for 96 yards, in the 33rd annual New Jersey Interscholastic Coaches Association’s North-South All-Star Football Classic at Kean University’s Alumni Stadium.

Malcolm graduated in 2011 and continued onto Dean College in Franklin, Massachusetts where he excelled on the field and was destined to become a star. Malcolm made a 20 yard touchdown pass to make the score 33-7 during the Dean vs. Yale JV game, which led the Bulldogs to the 40-14 win. As a result of this outstanding accomplishment, the Bulldogs ultimately shut out Nassau Community College 35-0 on October 22nd capturing the title Northeast Football Conference Champions! This win marks the Bulldogs fourth Northeast Football Conference (NFC) championship in five years and the fifth in league history. This is unprecedented in the history of the Conference!

Malcolm volunteered his time as a mentor for the young athletes of Orange during his breaks away from college. Malcolm enjoyed spending time with his teammates, family, girlfriend Jackie and friends. He loved bowling, going to New York and driving.

Malcolm was predeceased by his grandmother, Jessie Bagley; aunt Cheryl and uncle, Rahman. ## To My Loved Ones

No reason for sorrow, no reason to cry. Look toward tomorrow and I'll tell you why my memories of you and yours of me are filled with love and laughter forever. You'll see no reason to worry, nor question God as to why you have lost me. No reason to say goodbye.

It's time for my journey home, a beautiful and peaceful trip that I must make alone. So just be strong and keep a smile, we'll only be apart for a little while. The love I've known is a very special part, the love I've shown came straight from the heart.

I leave you now to go on my way to a wonderful place where we'll be together someday. No reason at all as you can see. I'm with my Lord. He'll take care of me.
