Obituary

Our beloved Rensfield Donald Jarvis Jr. (Ball Head) was born on November 27, 1988, in the City of New York, to Shirmef Cornelius (Francine) and Rensfield Jarvis (Sensi). Rensfield grew up in a loving and caring home with his mother and siblings.

Rensfield attended Stevenson High School. He loved to play basketball and have lots of fun. Rensfield had a funny sense of humor about himself, which always put a smile on your face no matter how you felt. Rensfield enjoyed having fun with his family and friends. He was always there for you when you needed him. Rensfield will be missed dearly by family and friends, because he touched so many lives in the short period of time he was here on earth.

Rensfield Donald Jarvis Jr. leaves to mourn: his mother, Shirmef Cornelius (Francine); his father, Rensfield Jarvis (Sensi); his six sisters, Kisha Benjamin, Renee Thompson, Jahrees Thompson, Aniska Mitchell, Tataina Charles and Shaniqua Jarvis; two brothers, Jahquan Jarvis and Sensi Jarvis; two grandmothers, Aloma Cornelius and Jennifer Smith; his grandfather, Lindy Jarvis; one niece, Nahtya Benjamin-Lawrence; six aunts; five uncles; and a host of cousins, grand and great grand uncles and friends of many years.

Rensfield (Ball Head) is now joined by all his relatives that have preceded before him. He will always live on in our hearts for all the love he has shared with us.

Rest in Peace your legacy of Love will live on in us.

The Chain Will Link Again

*Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.*

*In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
your love is still our guide.*

*And although we cannot see you,
you are always by our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.*

*But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*
