Obituary

Tyfees N. Hamler, better known as "Ty", was born April 9, 1986 in Newark, New Jersey to Dekida Hamler. He was a very special birth from God because he was the first male child in three generations. Ty was educated at Dayton Street School and Malcolm X Shabazz.

Tyfees was the class comedian, which kept him in trouble, but the humor and the devotion of his teachers. He entered a contest sponsored by Christian Advocacy and won for the best essay written. Ty had recently graduated from the New Community Culinary Art Program and received his degree. For everyone that truly knew him, he loved food. His dreams were to become a Master Chef and open his Restaurant.

To describe him would truly be to say he had a kind, forgiving nature, was respectful, warm and a kind person, with a big heart and the kind of person that people loved to be around (in other words) a gentle giant.

Yet, of all these things, his greatest accomplishment was fatherhood. Ty was a proud father, the bond between him and his son was indescribable. For all that are feeling this loss, the greatest loss is between father and son, for T.J. will miss him most.

Tyfees transcended Monday, May 21, 2012, following his late great, great aunt, Lois Moore Curry, his late great grandmother, Carolyn L. Halmer and great grandfather, Charles Hamler.

He will be cherished and missed by: his grandmother, Kim Hamler; mother, Dekida Hamler; father, Arnold T. Locke; companion, Shayonna Williams; his son, Tyfees Hamler, Jr.; his brothers, Najee Williams, Towan, Jr. and Dejour; his sisters, Nyasia, Giovanni, Deja, Journey and the late Sherell; nephew, Ny'Mir; niece, Ny'Yai; and a host of other relatives and friends.

We Love You Ty!

To My Grandson Najee

I know you are hurting more than you can express and most of the time the pain seems unbearable but trust and know that God will give strength to get through. So baby boy keep your head up your brother will always be with you, find a quiet place, close your eyes And talk to him like you always did when you were troubled about something or needed an opinion, he's listening. He will always live through you.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
