Reflections of Life

Frederick Zacharia Price was born in Glen Ridge, NJ on November 27, 1956 to the late Walter E. Price and the late Myrtle E.

Williams. He was their youngest son out of nine siblings. Big Freddie (as he was affectionately called by his family) and Popie by his grandson Kenny. He attended Bloomfield High School where his love for football started. While in High School he gainfully obtained a position working in the same capacity with his dad at Beisler and Weidmann Co. in Belleville NJ until his passing. This company is where he acquired many friends that would soon become his second family. This relationship blossomed into fishing trips, barbecues and many more family occasions.

Freddie enjoyed the outdoors, weight lifting, football, basketball and photography. He had a love for collecting the rarest cigarette lighters, knives, antique boats and cars. His one fulfillment was collecting and listening to rap music, along with all genres of music. One of his hidden talents was making Lasagna and Shrimp Scampi. His joy and passion for sports was passed along to his grandson at a tender age of one year old. Most importantly he loved his dog, JoJo until his passing in 2006.

Freddie (Popie) was in a loving and long lasting common law marriage to the late Patricia C. Meador. Their love for one another was a bond that could never be broken in Life or in Death! This relationship lasted over twenty five years until Pats passing in 2006.

Although big in stature Freddie (Popie) was a caring and gentle man. He was fun, loving, generous, kind and a responsible man who helped Pat raise her only child, Kim.

A special thank you to Georgia Habjitoouli from Kens Coffee shop in Orange NJ. For preparing meals for him every weekend.

On Tuesday, May 29, 2012, he was called to rest from his labor. He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Kim Grant; grandson, Kenneth Grant Jr. of Summit NJ; siblings, Walter Price of Watertown, NY, Earl (Pete) Price of San Diego, CA, Gary Price of Rahway, NJ, Wayne Price of Bloomfield, NJ, Loretta Price of Kearny, NJ, Karen Price of Bloomfield, NJ, Ethyl Price of Newark, NJ, Deidre Ellis of Durham, NC, Cassair Price of Orange, NJ, James (Jimmy) Burton of Montclair, NJ, Robert King and Ethel K. King; his extended family The Beislars, as well as nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Popie

We'll always remember that special smile, that caring heart, that warm embrace you always gave us.

You being there for Kenny and I through good and bad times, no matter what.

We'll always remember you Popie because they'll never be another one to replace you in our hearts, or the Love we will always have for you.

Dear Popie

As a child growing up you were always there for me. At my dance recitals, my school concerts, graduations and through growing pains. You watched me grow from a child into a woman. You have always been there and you made our lives complete. The thought of knowing I can no longer hear your smart and witty mouth pains me. The love you had for Kenny and I was genuine. I will embrace this loss not with complete understanding, but to know you are no longer in pain and suffering. You're at peace now and you will forever remain in my heart.

Love Always, Kim
