Obituary

Nathal Rasheedah Huggins-Evans was born on August 31, 1983 to the late Angelia Huggins and the late Joseph Baines in Newark, New Jersey.

Nathal was educated in the Newark Public School System and attended Saint Peter's College in Jersey City, New Jersey. Rasheedah graduated from the University of Phoenix also located in Jersey City, NJ. She was employed by FedEx and Windsor Gardens (Adult Day Care).

Nathal was a mother, sister, aunt and a friend. She was full of life and Diva power. Nathal was fabulous. She was very out spoken and loved the Lord. Often you would hear her shout out "Hallelujah" or "Obama" "Praise Him!" We know that while she left us in body, she is still with us in spirit and now at peace.

Nathal Rasheedah Huggins-Evans was preceded in death by her grandparents, the late Pastor Sarah F. Huggins-Blount and the late James E. Blount as well as her parents, Angelia Huggins-Harris and Joseph Baines.

She leaves to mourn one son, Rahjon J. Evans; one grandmother, Reddie-Mae Baines; two uncles, Decon Leroy (Angelina) Huggins, Edward (Jenny) Blount; one aunt, Pat Sine (Bert) Ferguson; two sisters, Nikiah Huggins-Huntley and Ny-Eta Huggins; one brother, James N. Huggins; three nephews, Ty-Jon Huntley, Ty-Won Huntley, and Kimon Huggins; one niece, Shy-Nee' Huggins-Huntley; a special friend, James Gaines; two favorite cousins, LeRoy Jr. and Leisha Huggins (raised as brother & sister); and a host of cousins and friends.

No More

*No more suffering, no more pain
Only sunshine, no more rain.
No more problems, no more stress
Only good times, no more mess.
No more crying, no more tears
Only smiles, no more fears.
No more running, no more hiding
Only the truth, no ore lying
No more wishing, no more hoping
Everything is granted, no more moping
No more hate, no more evil
Only God, no more devil
No more dealing with the physical form
Now spread your wings and Fly on.*

Acknowledgements
