Obituary

Saintanie Aladin entered this world on the 15th day of April 1942 in a small area of Jacmel Lamontagne, Haiti. "Tanie" as she was called was one of seventeen children to Tamisse Midi and Aurel Aladin. Saintanie entered into eternal peace on Monday June 4, 2012.

Saintanie was a loving wife, dedicated mother and an unassuming person who lived and worked to help others. In 1982, after establishing a visa to the US through the help of her late sister Lucia Aladin, she quickly strived to provide opportunities for her family. She worked hard and years later, she helped several other family members reside to the US.

Saintanie entered the world of home care where she worked to take care of people within their homes. She developed a rare quality of dependability. You could count on her. Her thoughtful gestures and supportive nature will long be remembered.

She enjoyed cooking, gardening, going to church and simply spending time with family. She was a member of the Bethlehem Adventist Christian Church. She had a strong will, unwavering faith in God and love for her family and friends. Throughout her life she maintained a sweet and simple demeanor that won the trust and hearts of many.

Today, Saintanie leaves her loving memories to be cherished by: her husband, Origene Louis; daughter, Nadine; sons, Gracia, Alix and Lookinson; grandchildren, Daurell, Jasmine, Joel, Aliyah, Keyanna, Elijah, Madison and Kyla; one brother, Catulle Aladin and many nieces, nephews and grand nieces and nephews

A lifelong communicant of the lord, today Saintanie rests proudly and happily within the heavens reunited with her brothers and sisters. Today, heaven welcomes a new angel to watch over us.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
