Obituary

Annie B. Hendrix was born on February 13, 1921 in Castalia, NC to the late Plummer and Carrie Williams. She fought long and hard for six months before she departed this life on June 24, 2012 at St. Barnabas Hospital.

“Maun” as she was affectionately known as, started her life as a young woman in the South. She met and married the late Henderson Richardson. From this union, James and Carrie were born. Years later, she fell in love again with the late Henry Hendrix, introducing Yacie, Diane, and William into the world.

In 1958, she moved to NJ, to never move back South again. Working as a domestic worker for over forty years, she worked over time to raise her five children, as well as everyone else’s. Although funny and VERY feisty in character, she was the most loving and caring person anyone could meet. With a heart of gold and her undeniable faith in God, she touched the lives of so many; leaving everlasting memories that’ll last a lifetime.

She leaves to cherish: her children, Yacie Enos (Willie), Carrie Richardson and Diane Williams; her beloved daughter-in-law, Lillie Richardson; her eleven grandchildren, twenty seven great-grandchildren, eleven great-great grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Annie was preceded in death by her two sons, James “Woot” Richardson and William “Boy” Hendrix. Also, by all six of her younger siblings, Florine, Quenzy, Lenora, Goldie, Grover and June.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil;

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
