Obituary

Timothy McDowell was born in New York City on December 18, 1968, the youngest of four children of Nena and Leroy McDowell. He grew up in the City and first attended public school before moving on to a private school at Melrose Community Center. He then graduated with an academic diploma from Theodore Roosevelt High School in the Bronx, New York.

After graduation, Timothy worked for the NYC Board of Education for several years, an occupation that he took delight in. Timothy was a vibrant person. Timothy was also a loving person who would offer his services to anyone in need. If you suffered a loss, Timothy would be there to console you. He loved his family dearly.

Timothy was taught the Bible at an early age by his mother. Through her faith, he learned about God's promise of a righteous new world in a future paradise on earth. It is this same hope that sustains his family through this tragic loss.

Timothy leaves to mourn his passing: his father and mother, Leroy and Nena McDowell; one brother, Levern; two sisters, Margaret Bennett and Cheryl Copeland; two brothers-in-law, Charles Bennett and Lamar Copeland; two aunts, Thelma Charles and Martha Chandler (David); one cousin whom he considered as an aunt, Diane DeNully; and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends.

1st Thessalonians 4:13: (New World Translation)

¹³ Moreover, brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant concerning those who are sleeping in death; that you may not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope.

Acts 24:15:

¹⁵ And I have hope toward God, which hope these men themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

John 5:28-29

²⁸ Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice

²⁹ And come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

Revelation 21:3-4

³ With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! the tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them.

⁴ And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away."
