Obituary

Ruby Viola Jones was born April 3, 1910 in Raleigh, NC to the late Henry Clay Jones and Mary Maude Young. She moved to New Jersey with her family in 1920. Ruby was educated in the New Jersey School system. She had a passion for education. Ruby received her Master's degree in Accounting from Rutgers University (Newark campus) and also took art classes at the Newark School of Fine Industrial Arts.

In 1925, Ruby married the late Virgil Williams. To this union two sons were born Arthur Virgil and Robert Eugene. Ruby was a licensed beautician and a proprietor of a salon in Newark. She was employed for more than thirty years with the US Postal Service.

Ruby was a member of Queen of Angels Church in Newark where she was active with the Rosary Society, Bingo and led the Girl Scouts for many years.

Ruby loved to travel and once traveled around the world. She loved her pets (especially her cats), enjoyed reading and doing crossword puzzles as well as other types of puzzles. Ruby was always willing to help others and kept informed with current events. She drove until her early 90's and for those of us that knew her well, knew to get out of her way when she was on the road. Her favorite saying when someone injured themselves was "I didn't feel it, do it again."

Ruby lived in Newark on her own into her 90's until relocating to Care One Nursing Home in Livingston, NJ.

Ruby was predeceased by her two sons, Arthur V. and Robert E. Williams; her brother, Thomas W. Jones; daughter-in-law, Mildred A. Williams; granddaughter, Sandra R. Williams.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter-in-law, Queen Esther Williams; ten grandchildren, Arlene, Aleta (Ben), Ruby, Robert (Ida), Vance, Arthur (Justine), Kim (Keith), Renee (Allen) and Mary (Larry); twenty-two great grandchildren; eighteen great great grandchildren; one great great great grandson; a great niece; two great nephews; a god daughter, Betty (Doug); and a host of other relatives and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
