Who Will Cry For The Little Boy

Who will cry for the little boy... lost and all alone
Who will cry for the little boy... abandoned without his own
Who will cry for the little boy... he cries himself to sleep
Who will cry for the little boy... who we never had for keeps
Who will cry for the little boy... who walked the burning sand
Who will cry for the little boy... the boy inside the man
Who will cry for the little boy... who knew well of hurt and pain
Who will cry for the little boy... who died and died again
Who will cry for the little boy... a good boy he tried to be
Who will cry for the little boy... who cries inside of me

Reflections of Life

Clarence L. Guyton AKA “Klanky” began his journey of life June 4, 1960.

The late Inez Bethea-Guyton and James Edward Guyton were blessed with a baby boy for the second time.

Clarence attended School #5 and graduated from John F. Kennedy High School in Paterson, NJ. Moving on to serve out country in the US Navy from 1979-1981 with an Honorable Discharge.

He went on to fulfill his life with dedication love and respect. He carried an attitude of discipline which was laid back and free spirited. In his travels across the country he enjoyed working, providing for his family, watching movies, and had a passion for reading. In November 1994, he became a proud father to Alfonso Zahair Jackson on August 13, 2001. He married his wife of eleven years, Kristine Whitney of NY.

He was called home to be greeted by his father, James Guyton who preceded his journey on April 13, 2004.

He departs cherishing his loving memories of: his wife, Kristine Guyton; son, Alfonso Jackson; his loving mother, Inez Guyton; sisters, Gloria “Glo” Washington and Danielle “D” Brisbon; brother-in-law, Deshon “Black” Brisbon brothers, Lenard “Buck” Guyton and David “Bean” Guyton; sisters-in-law, Debra Bracy and Marie Guyton; he also leaves eight nieces, four nephews, six great nephews, three great nieces and many aunts, uncles and cousins in Southeastern US; his longtime friend, Maynard Freeman and friends all over the world.
