Obituary

Mrs. Elouise Vanderhorst, age sixty-four, died at Bronx Lebanon Hospital, Bronx, NY, on Wednesday, July 4, 2012.

Born, January 28, 1948, in Columbia, SC to Frank and Josie Lou Thompson.

Elouise was lovely and kind, a person who would give you her last dime. She was a care giver and cook for the disabled at Community Resource Center (CRC) for almost twenty-eight years. She was an "Excellent Cook" says Margarita, a long time friend and co-worker. Elouise loved people and cared with the compassion of an angel. She was a sweet person and so tender-hearted towards children. Although she did not naturally birth any children, she had many children AND adults that called her "mommi". People loved Lou! Family called her "Weezy" and many others called her friend.

She was predeceased in death by two brothers.

She is survived by: her husband, James Vanderhorst; daughter, Kim; sisters, Mattie Bethel of New York City and Jennifer Watson of Columbia, South Carolina; brothers, Jimmy Lee Thompson (Bessie) and Benjamin Thompson both of Columbia, South Carolina; one aunt, Katie Crumpton. She will be sorely missed by many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and a longtime friend, Ivan Glover.

She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone

Or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back

Or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her

Or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone

Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back

Or you can do what she'd want:

smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
