

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Obituary

Reflection of the life of Suprenise Joseph born to the late Marie Carestine and Nincy Joseph in Dessalines, Haiti on August 15, 1924.

She was the fourth of ten children. Suprenise’s transition was on July 1, 2012 at Newark Beth Israel Hospital in Newark, NJ at 9:40 a.m.

Suprenise was the spouse to the late Ineus Damestoir and of this union ten children were born.

She was a very hard working farmer and housewife in her hometown, Dessalines, Haiti. She later emigrated to the US in 1987. She was an active member in her church. Suprenise loved to cook; her all time favorite meal was kalalou (okra). She loved to dance, joke, tell humorous stories of her younger days. She also was very grateful that God blessed her with eighty-seven years.

She’ll be greatly missed by all of her seven surviving children, her fifty plus grandchildren and everyone to whom she was special to. Though her loving smile is gone forever before our eyes, her hand we can no longer touch, but will always have these beautiful memories of Suprenise in our hearts.
