Obituary

Sunrise

Louise Clark Fletcher was the first born to the late Ralph Clark and Nathalie Clark Timbers. She was the first born of eight children in the Bronx, New York on November 20, 1933 and spent her early childhood there.

High Noon

Louise met and married the late Raymond Fletcher. The Lord blessed them with two children, son, Carlton Perry Fletcher “Uncle” and daughter, Debra Elizabeth Fletcher (Debbie). The family resided in Brooklyn, NY for a number of years then they moved to St. Albans, NY. Louise worked for New York Transit Authority for thirty-two years where she retired.

Sunset

On Monday, July 23, 2012 in the early afternoon, God reached down and softly whispered, “Louise you’ve been faithful. You have fought the good fight. You have finished the course. It’s time to come home.” He saw the roads were rough and hills were harder to climb so he closed your weary eyes. It broke our hearts to let you go but you did not go alone, for part of us went with you.

Louise is remembered by: her son, Carlton Fletcher from St. Albans, NY; daughter, Debra Fletcher from Columbia, South Carolina and her beloved grandchildren, Kristina, Marcus and Ay’Anna; her sisters, Nathalie Shields and Mamie Stinson; her step-children; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Louise was always giving of herself and always helped others. Always had a kind word, compassionate, concerned and uplifting and never complaining.

We loved you Mommy, but God loved you best. He made final plans.

Respectfully submitted,
The Family

I've Changed My Address

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.
